

Educator on Study Tour At El Camino

Dr. Walter Sindlinger, professor of education at Columbia University, was presented to the administrative staff of El Camino College by Stuart E. Marsee, El Camino president, at a luncheon meeting Thursday.

Dr. Sindlinger's visit was made expressly to question administrators about departmental and divisional functions within community colleges on the West Coast.

"We people in the East were slow in getting started in the community college program and I would say that California is 20 years ahead of the Atlantic States in junior college education," Sindlinger said.

Caught with rapidly expanding enrollments, East Coast colleges have requested Dr. Sindlinger, a recognized leader in the eastern community college development, to make his survey in preparation for curricula and methods needed to meet the growth anticipated in the area of community college education in the next 20 years.

Barbershoppers to Fete 'Harmony Week' Friday

This week "Sing Along With Mitch" takes a back seat to "Sing Along With the Barbershoppers." This is International Barbershop Harmony Week being celebrated by the 30,000 members of SPEBSQSA throughout the United States and Canada.

During the past 24 years, these happy harmonizers have been filling auditoriums across the continent with folks who love to sing and listen to the "old songs." Community singing has been a part of every Barbershop Harmony show held since the organization was founded April 11, 1938. Barbershoppers are strictly amateurs in status but professional in sound.

If you doubt that statement why not join with the local chapter as they celebrate Harmony Week Friday night at 8 at the Redondo Beach Eagle Hall, Catalina at Garnet. President Nick Ferrin states there will be no admission charge.

"Here's a wonderful way to forget the tensions and worries of this troubled world. Lose yourself in song one week and see if you aren't just a little bit happier than before," Ferrin said.

"The local chapter of SPEBSQSA meets every Monday night at 8 at Meadow School, Manhattan Beach. Me of good character who love to sing are "chordially" invited to attend, he said.
